HARRY WILLS KNOCKS OUT JACKSON

New York, Aug. 29—Harry Wills, New Orleans heavyweight tonight knocked out "Tut" Jackson of Wash-ington Court House, Ohio, after two minutes and five seconds of fighting in the third round of their sched-uled 15-round match at Ebbets' field Brooklyn.

It was the first time that Jackson in his short pugilistic career had been knocked out. Jackson became known after knocking out some forty odd leaser lights in the heavyweight division most notable of these knockouts was that of Sam Langford, the "Boston Tar Baby" who several years ago was one of the leading heavyweights of the world. Jackson showed little of pugilistic knowledge against Wills.

Wills towered several inches above the Ohioan and out-weighed him by 25 pounds. Wills showed prodigious strength in his punching, Jackson was badly hurt by body blows and quickly weakened.

The protest of the Americans against the facing of the American against the facing of the American team fourth in the 440-yard relay in the women's Olympic games held at Pershing stadium, August 20, was today endorsed by the French Feminine Athletic Federation.
